

Les Villas de Vohilava

Île Sainte Marie

GUEST HOUSE - RESTAURANT «LA VARANGUE»

With its 25 years of existence, the «Villas of Vohilava» is an address recognized for the friendliness that it offers to its guests.

Here, we do not like to mention the word 'client'. Taking the human dimension into account is one of our values, which is why our occupants are strangers when they arrive, but quickly become true friends.

We encourage responsible ecotourism and we want each trip to be a memorable opportunity to build and strengthen relationships for everyone. We also want to help you discover our beautiful island, still preserved, whose beauty, richness and authenticity makes it one of the jewels of the Indian Ocean.

Our villas on the seafront are spacious, decorated with originality and furnished with every comfort needed.

Exotic in our dishes. Our colorful kitchen is made from fresh products brought by the villagers. Everything you might want is served every day at our restaurant 'La Varangue': fish, seafood, tropical fruits and fresh vegetables. You can enjoy breakfast and dinner on the spacious terrace along the lagoon.

The most friendly and themed evenings happen here. Your holidays will be at their best when you enjoy the original cocktails made by Emile, served with his legendary smile.

ACTIVITIES • MASSAGE ROOM

Entertainment is essential. You can explore the most famous corners of the island with a guide on two wheels or by tuktuk, but also enjoy the joys of the sea, at the diving center located a few minutes from 'Vohilava'. Bora Dive offers a variety of water activities: diving, kite surfing, whale watching, kayaking...

The humpback whales honor us with a passage every year in our waters, between June and September. In partnership with Cetamada, we organize your sea trips, so that you can live in this masterful moment.

To recharge and revitalize you, we offer treatments based on natural products and massages based on organic essential oils. What to soothe your skin and relax you after your swims at the beach and your sunburns marking your walks and excursions.

« All our accommodations are designed to make everyone feel at home. With us, the customer is not the king but a friend.

See you soon ! »
